

AFSCAN is a ProSalus Foundation initiative that facilitates capacity building in the African community to enhance quality in small companion animal medicine, promoting a One-Health perspective.

Call for Applications for the AFSCAN SEVC Scholarships 2025

The AFSCAN Board is calling for applications for two AFSCAN Scholars, one English-speaking and one Portuguese-speaking, from Sub-Saharan Africa, who will attend the Southern European Veterinary Conference (SEVC) in Seville from 23rd to 25th October 2025.

AFSCAN is a ProSalus Foundation initiative that facilitates capacity building in the African community to enhance quality in small companion animal medicine, promoting a One-Health perspective.

Based on the generous support from Hill's Pet Nutrition, AFSCAN can offer these scholarships for African veterinary graduates to gain new experience in veterinary medicine by joining SEVC Annual meetings in Spain.

Information on what the scholarship offers, the eligibility criteria, and the application form can be found below.

Applications must be submitted by the closing date of 31st May 2025.

Applications must be submitted electronically to marcondes.mary@gmail.com, with a clear indication in the subject title of the message that the e-mail pertains to the AFSCAN SEVC SCHOLARSHIP. Submissions that do not include all requested documents will not be accepted.

Successful applicants will be notified by the end of June 2025.

AFSCAN is a ProSalus Foundation initiative that facilitates capacity building in the African community to enhance quality in small companion animal medicine, promoting a One-Health perspective.

Selection Process for the AFSCAN SEVC Scholarships 2025

Eligibility Criteria	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Applicants should be between 5 –15 years after graduation from veterinary school Applicants must be an active member of their Local Association Applicants should have the potential to develop, support and expand veterinary continuing education in their region Applicants should be fluent in English and/or Portuguese language Applicants must be eligible for a visa to Spain
Documents to be sent electronically as described in the announcement above	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Curriculum vitae of the applicant Letter of intent from the applicant explaining how the scholarship will benefit them and lead to satisfying above aims A letter of support from a board member of their local association stating that the applicant is an active member of the Association A letter of support from the respective AFSCAN Ambassador
Scholarship package	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Travel expenses covering pre-approved economy flight tickets Full congress registration Max 4 nights hotel accommodation
Expectations of the successful applicants	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 400-word report on their experiences within 2 weeks of Congress that may be published Meeting with AFSCAN Board members if appropriate Appropriate publicity photographs taken on site and in respective country of applicant in his/her clinic Agreement on use of pictures and name for publicity